NATURAL BRIDGE VERY POPULAR

Miss Nell Brockenborough Gives Delightful Whist
Party.

EUCHRE PARTY MUCH ENJOYED

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Gilliam Entertain Many at Their Home.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NATURAL BRIDGE, August 10.—The social whirl at Natural Bridge reached high-water mark during the past week, and never has the Bridge been more attractive and gay than at the present time.
The weather has been just what the most fastidious could wish. Cool nights, with sunny days, have made horseback riding and driving continue one of the most enjoyable features.

It seems to be the opinion of all the guests that there is no time for letter-writing, for in the morning, as soon as breakfast is over, there is a rush for the bowling alley or for the croquet ground, for that is very popular here.
Others take long, beautiful walks. Nature has been most lavish to the Bridge in that respect, for it seems that with just a little trouble one can take a new walk each day and find himself more pleased than with the previous walk.

The social functions of the week have been many and varied, and it is almost impossible to chronicle them all.
Miss Nell Brockenborough, of Lexington, Va., entertained the following guests at a delightful bridge whist party on Thursday morning. The tables, which consisted of three, were arranged on the broad verandas of the hotel, and the following guests were the participants: Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton, Mrs.
Herndon, first table; Mrs. Howard S.
Smith, Miss Champlain, Miss Gertrude Champlain, Miss Annie Street, second table; Miss Paxton, Miss Grace Neal, Miss Dorothy Sweeney, Mrs. Ringler, third table. Miss Brockenborough detected herself to entertainment of her guests, and proved a charming hostess.
The game was played with zest, and the prizes, which were pretty and appropriate, were awarded—first prize to Mrs. Wise; second prize to Miss Annie Street.

Friday morning the guests of the hotel enjoyed a delightful euchre party.
The following were the fortunate participants: Mr. and Mrs. Hecht, Mr. and Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Thornton, Herndon, Weinbach, Mrs. Consolvo, Mrs. Howard Smith, Mrs. Avery, Mrs. Ringler, Misses Street, Miss Champlain, Miss Gertrude Champlain, Miss Paxton, Miss Berry and Mr. Champlain. The game was played with keen enjoyment by the entire party. The prizes were very pretty and appropriate. The following were the fortunate ones: Mrs.
Weinbach, first prize; Mrs. Ringler, second; Mr. Champlain, first gentlemen's prize; Miss Nell Brockenborough, console.

Mrs. Henry Wise, of New York City, entertained the following guests at an impromptu reception Saturday afternoon on the veranda of the main hotel.

BRIGHT DAYS AT CROCKETT'S

Guests Enjoy Themselves in Leisure Pleasures and Fascinating Pursuits.

MRS. HANCKEL'S BRIDGE PARTY

Miss Bertha Leeds Wins Prize at "Library

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CROCKETT SPRINGS, VA., August 10.—The past few days have indeed been the gala period of the summer season at Crockett Springs, and the tide of enjoyment is at its flood.

The tennis court is in fine condition, the weather continues favorable, and this wholesome sport has become the order of the day. Among the most expert players are Misses Stock, Maxwell and Demarest and Messrs. Tiller, Stock and Thomas, Mr. Stock being the acknowledged champion.

The bowling tournament of Monday afternoon, given by Mrs. W. F. Hardie in honor of Misses Cowan and Wells, of Allegheny Springs, furnished much enjoyment for the favored guests.
Mrs. Hardie is deservedly one of the most popular women of the Springs, and her entertainments always partake of the elegance and charm for which this attractive lady is distinguished.
The prize for the highest score was won by Dr. Costenbader, one of Crockett's most expert bowlers.

The cool, crisp air of these fine August days offers great temptation to all lovers of outdoor amusements.
Riding, driving, mountaineering are quite the fashion, several parties every morning leaving the hotel to wander for hours among the beauties of this wonderful mountain scenery. At night the ball-room and card-rooms are crowded, while in the reading-room the elders sit around the blazing log fire and enjoy the comfort of a winter evening in the very heart of the summertime.

On Wednesday Miss Kathleen Thomas gave a fudge party to her girl friends at Beechwood Cottage. The tables were set on the wide triangular veranda, which was beautiful with Japanese decorations, vases of cut flowers being profusely distributed, and inviting hammocks wooing the charming guests to idleness and repose. Miss Thomas made the fudge over a chafindish, and the girls most heartily enjoyed it, as well as other delicious refreshments that followed.
Tuesday morning was the occasion of one of those delightful bridge parties that are so popular at Crockett's.
This one was tendered Miss Eliza Thompson, of Culpeper, by Mrs. J. E.
M. Hanchel, of Roanoke. The guest of honor had been a long expected visitor, and her arrival last week caused great pleasure to her numerous friends, and gave rise to many pleasant social functions in compliment to her. The bridge party was a great success, the invitations including a hundred guests.
The tables were set on the north ver-

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE PARTY

Mrs. Bransford Adams Wins the Highest Score and Prize.

BLUE RIDGE SPRINGS, VA., August 10.—The midsummer rush is on at this picturesque resort, and the flying hours go by with winged feet, leaving no shadow of care in passing. The only need that has been felt here is the lack of church service on the Sabbath, and never before for so long a period has the colony been deprived of such ministration.

On last Sunday afternoon a party of young people ascended the heights of Wild Cat Knob and worshipped from its summit the Grand Architect, who with lavish hand, had built the great panorama of mountain, vale and towering peaks, all aglow with the splendor of gorgeous sunset.
A novel game of baseball was the entertainment for Monday morning, which was exciting and strenuously contested. The Blue Ridge Champions won, and are now offering to accept any challenge. The members of this team are: Julian Addison, catcher; T.
W. Johns, pitcher; Miss Edith Mon-gomery, shortstop; Mrs. B. B. Adams, first base; Charles N. Romaine, second base; Miss Pauline Hethorn, third base; Mrs. A. D. Kent, left field; Miss Cunningham, right field; Lynchburg Professionals; F. Flynn, catcher; James Caskie, pitcher; Miss Alice Graham, first base; Miss Letitia Woodward, second base; Miss B. C. Cole, second base; Miss Lillian Pratt, third base; Miss Ethel Hethorn, left field; Mrs. C. De Witt, Jr., right field; umpire, Clinton De Witt, Jr.; official scorer, Mr. Burke, of Mobile. The six innings recorded showed the following scores by runs: Blue Ridge Champions, 4 0 5 3 3 18 Lynchburg Professionals, 0 4 0 1 2 4—11 The rosters were much in evidence, and amply cheered either side when making a home run. Among the young ladies playing on the teams the Misses Hethorn, two charming sisters from Blackstone, Va., were most conspicuous for excellence. These young ladies, after a stay of two weeks here, won many tributes of praise, and their departure for home was greatly regretted.

The calendar marks Tuesday as the scene of a progressive euchre party, given by Mrs. Corolla Branch Stone, of Galveston, complimentary to the Lynchburg, Va., of the same city. The nine tables were placed on one of the broad verandas, where the embowering vines of honeysuckle and wisteria made a cool retreat for the sport until the evening games were played. Mrs. Stone presented the prizes in a short speech to each recipient; first to Mrs. Moody, who received the "guest prize," a hand-painted china compote dish. Mrs.
Bransford Adams, of Lynchburg, having won the highest score, received a gold heart brooch, decorated with an enameled four-leaved clover, with pearl setting. Mrs. Walter Addison, of Lynchburg, and Miss Letitia Woodward, of Richmond, having both the same score for second honor, Mrs. Addison was successful in "cutting," and now drinks from the "cup that cheers," which came from

FILL SUMMER DAYS WITH PLEASURES

Gaiety at Jefferson Park Hotel Increases as August Moves Along.

BALL FOLLOWS HORSE SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. George Mason Lead Friday Evening
German.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
JEFFERSON PARK HOTEL, CHAR-LOTTESVILLE, VA., August 10.— The midsummer days are crowded almost to overflowing with the many pleasures which may be enjoyed here, for as the season advances entertaining increases, until the days are too full for even the most enthusiastic social butterfly.

The Albemarle Horse Show closed with the brilliant ball of Friday night, led by Mr. and Mrs. George Mason, of Essex Hill, which drew eighty colorful guests. The ball was a most pleasureful one, and the guests enjoyed it to the very last. The ball was held in a room which had been recently redecorated, and the tables were engaged in a spirited game, after which delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mrs.
Watkins, Mrs. Huff, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs.
Roper, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Hankins, Miss Fanny Clark, Miss Thompson, Mrs.
Taylor, Mrs. Norment and Mrs. Boykin.
The first prize was a handsome gold "feather in the cap" veil pin, and the chase, which was a very fine one, was won by Mrs. Norment. The ball was a most successful one, and the guests were very much pleased with it.

The event of the week, however, was the German of Thursday night, given in the hotel dining-hall, skillfully led by Mr. Adolphus Blair, of Richmond, and assisted by Mrs. Blair. The German was a most successful one, and the guests were very much pleased with it.
Among those dancing were Misses Lawson, Burgess, Morgan, Parrish, Parrish, Pool, Ervin, Burton, Adriant, of Texas; Bluff, of Richmond; Hatcher, Watkins, Fontaine, Minor, Maury, Boiling, Boykin, Miss Bettie Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Hankins, Mr. and Mrs.
Bradley Peyton, Mrs. Reinhold Rogers, Mrs. Roper, Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs.
Hammill, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. George, Miss Clark, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Norment and Dr. and Mrs.
Frank Hough; Messrs. Ben Sinclair, Paul Barringer, White, of Texas; Albert Bolling, of Richmond; Dr. Con-stantin Hughes, Barton, Smith, Walter Sinclair, Rodas and Jack Peyton.

Honor Richmond Girls.
A trio of very attractive Richmond girls, Misses Helen Adams, Rebecca Walker and Daisy Boykin, have been spending some time here, and are the recipients of much attention.
Miss Bettie Clarke is here, and is always surrounded by an interested group of admirers.
Athens, Ga., sends two charming representatives—Mrs. John White Morton and her sister-in-law, Mrs. O. R. Hinton, who are two of Jefferson Park's most popular young matrons.
The Misses Parrish, of Richmond, arrived Monday and were gladly welcomed by their friends. Miss Grace L. Goodrich, of Smithfield, who joined the merry Lawson party last week.
Mr. William L. Zimmer and Mr. Leroy Roper, of Petersburg, was among the Horse Show guests who made many
